WHAT'S A CONFRATUTE?

Confratute, a professional development conference and summer institute with a good deal of fraternity mixed in, is celebrating its 39th year in 2016! With staff and participants from across the United States and around the world, Confratute has grown in size and diversity as a unique experience for the educational community. The continued success of our program is due to our commitment to the following:

• First and foremost, our focus is on differentiation of instruction, high-end learning, and enrichment teaching. We believe that all students can benefit from enjoyable and challenging learning opportunities; that learning is maximized when we consider each student’s abilities, interests, learning styles, and preferred modes of expression. Our focus is on accommodating these differences in a variety of settings. We have shown through our research that a strength-based approach is the best way to both challenge our most advanced learners and to close the achievement gap for at risk youngsters.

• Everyone who teaches at Confratute is selected from the very best professionals who spend the majority of their time directly involved with schools, teachers, and kids. Our focus on practical skills and personalizing the learning process has resulted in nothing short of superlative evaluations over the last 38 years.

• Confratute is an informal learning environment where you can interact on a first-name basis with the staff; meet on the patio with people who share similar concerns; discuss hopes and dreams about education on a sunrise walk around the duck pond; share a late night pizza with other members of the chorus; make plans to stay in touch with new friends and colleagues or visit other people's schools; or start a nationwide blog, Wiki, or computer network of young people who share common interests.

Most of all, Confratute is a community of learners willing to put aside the roles and responsibilities of their everyday jobs to become totally immersed with others in an atmosphere that is purposefully designed to promote acceptance, trust, scholarship, hard work, hard fun, and the belief that everyone has something to contribute to educational improvement. We hope you will join us at Confratute 2016 and will take both a vision and the know-how to make the vision a reality back to your schools.

GENERAL INFORMATION

DETERMINING YOUR CONFRATUTE GOALS
To help you reflect on your educational or professional goals before arriving at Confratute, we encourage you to complete the Adult Interest-A-Lyzer located at www.confratute.uconn.edu/welcome_packet/. You are not expected to turn in the Interest-A-Lyzer. The instrument is designed to help you examine and articulate your ideas about personal and professional interests to assist you in determining which Confratute experiences will be most professionally relevant for you.

MEETINGS WITH STRAND COORDINATORS
Each Strand Coordinator will be available for individual and small group meetings. Sign-up sheets will be available in each Strand Coordinator’s mailbox in Command Central. Generally, individual meetings are scheduled in 15-minute intervals and group meetings are scheduled for 30 minutes each.

BYOL (Bring Your Own Laptop)
Bringing your own laptop, iPad, or Tablet for technology and other strands is highly recommended. Most technology strands targeted at beginner or novice levels will be held in regular classrooms as individual work stations are not available. Strands that recommend personal laptops or other devices are marked with a computer icon on the Confratute schedule located at www.confratute.uconn.edu/schedule/.

INTERNET ACCESS
Wireless internet access is available in all areas of campus including the residence halls, classrooms, and common areas. A very limited number of computers are provided for Internet and email access every day during hours of operation within walking distance, such as the Homer Babbidge Library – www.lib.uconn.edu/libraries/homer-babbidge-library/.

ATTIRE
Participants should dress comfortably in casual clothing, as most activities are informal. If you plan to attend the Farewell Banquet on Thursday evening, dinner attire is recommended. Comfortable walking shoes are highly recommended, as UConn is predominantly a pedestrian campus. Our days are usually warm to hot, but evenings and air-conditioned buildings can be cool. We suggest that you bring a sweater, sweatshirt, or light jacket to dress in layers. Rain gear or an umbrella may also be useful.

FITNESS & RECREATION
There are many opportunities to stay fit at Confratute. The UConn Student Recreation Facility offers a pool, exercise equipment, and other recreational facilities for a small fee. Walking, biking, and jogging maps will be available at Command Central.

AVOID CONFRATUTE OVERLOAD
Each day of Confratute is packed with keynote presentations, strands, special sessions, social events, and other activities. Past experience has shown us that you should be selective in scheduling your time. You should leave some time for working on an educational product, having informal conversations, or sitting under a tree to simply think a little and enjoy yourself. Confratute is a total learning experience and we firmly believe that a part of that experience should be devoted to informal discussion, recreational and social activities, and just plain relaxation.
RESIDENT INFORMATION

CAMPUS RESIDENT HOUSING
In one sense, resident participants at “Tute” go back to college. Planning for this in advance will help make your stay on campus more enjoyable. If no preferred roommate is listed on your registration, you will be assigned a roommate and/or suitemates. Please contact our office at confratute@uconn.edu if any special arrangements are required.

The South Campus Residence Halls’ rooms are comfortable and air-conditioned. The double occupancy rooms are "suite-style" with two bedrooms, a common living room, and bathroom shared by four suite occupants. The single occupancy rooms include a bedroom with shared bathroom. A very limited number of single occupancy rooms are available and they will be assigned on a first-come, first-served basis. Parking is available for participants who are assigned to residence halls (see page 6).

Rooms come with linen packets (includes two sheets, pillowcase, pillow, two towels, and facecloth). A towel exchange service and washer/dryer are available at no charge and laundry supplies can be purchased at the local stores. Rooms do not have some of the traditional amenities you will find in a hotel (such as daily maid service, televisions, alarm clocks, hair dryers, irons, coffee makers, or refrigerators). For your comfort you may wish to bring a desk lamp, bed light, alarm clock, extension cord, and small personal mirror.

Phone messages can be left at the Rome Conference Housing Desk at (860) 486-2697, 7:00 am – 11:00 pm. Messages will be posted on a message board in the lobby of Rome Hall. Check the board frequently for any messages that might be pertinent to you.

The Rome Conference Housing Desk is open 7 days a week, 7:00 AM - 11:00 PM. The Conference Housing Staff is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week at (860) 486-2697. Check-in begins at 3:00 PM on Sunday, July 10. Check-out begins at 6:00 AM and ends at 12:00 noon on Friday, July 15.

MEALS
Meals are served in the Rome Commons Dining Hall beginning with a light meal on Sunday evening, July 10 and ending with lunch on Friday, July 15. A list of local restaurants will be available in Command Central if you do not choose a package with lunch or all meals.

ALTERNATIVE HOUSING
If you are looking to register for a commuter package for Confratute, we have listed a few hotels and inns in the area for your choice of an Alternative Housing Option. You can access the alternative housing listing on our web page at www.confratute.uconn.edu/welcome_packet/.

The Nathan Hale Inn is located on campus across from the South Campus “hub” of Confratute. Contact them at 860-427-7888 and let them know you are a Confratute participant. Or, make your room reservations online at www.nathanhaleinn.com and enter the group code CONFRA to receive the discounted rates. (Note: You will need to register as a commuter if you choose to stay at the hotel.)

SMOKING, SAFETY, AND RESPECT FOR OTHERS
Smoking, candles, or open flames of any kind are not allowed in the dorm rooms. Smoking is limited to designated areas outside of buildings. Code Blue Phones are placed around campus for emergencies and connect directly to the UConn Police Department. While in our casual campus atmosphere, please reduce the use of perfumes and scents in consideration of fellow participants with asthma and chemical sensitivities. Please respect the quiet hours in and around the dorms: 11:00 pm to 6:00 am.
ACADEMIC CREDIT FOR CONFRATUTE

Confratute can be taken for graduate credit and is fully accredited in Educational Psychology at the University of Connecticut, earning you three (3) graduate credits in either EPSY 5195: Workshop in Education or EPSY 5198: Curriculum Lab. Additionally, all of our strands for Confratute are offered through the Educational Psychology Gifted and Talented Department at the University of Connecticut and may be considered for purposes of teacher certification in the field of gifted in some states.

APPLICATION AND PAYMENT FOR CREDIT

Application and payment for graduate credit is accepted in Command Central Tuesday through Friday. Application for credit after the conclusion of Confratute is not accepted. Payment for academic credit is a separate, additional cost beyond the Confratute registration fee. A tuition fee in the amount of $2,172.00 for three (3) graduate credits is due when you apply. An additional one-time enrollment fee of $65.00 and a Technology Fee of $30.00 are required for non-degree students. Degree students pay an additional enrollment fee of $45.00 and other activity fees as required. Payment is to be made by cash, check, money order, purchase order, credit card, or electronic check.

Students (via the Student Administration System) and Authorized Users (via the E-bill and Payment Suite) can make a payment with VISA, MasterCard, Discover, American Express, JCB, BC Card, DinaCard and Diner’s Club. Participants paying by credit card will have to provide a home e-mail address to be e-billed or they can pay by electronic check. Degree students will pay directly in their PeopleSoft Financials account. *A 2.75% convenience fee will apply to your transaction and is required to offset the expense of offering credit cards as a payment option and is paid directly to the credit card processor. Participants can pay by electronic check to avoid the credit card transaction fee.

STRAND SELECTION AND PRODUCT DEVELOPMENT

Participants who register and pay for graduate credit will select a strand as their “major” and work independently with their strand coordinator to develop an independent project or product to fulfill the requirements for earning credit in either EPSY 5195: Workshop in Education or EPSY 5198: Curriculum Lab. Guidelines for product development will be discussed in each strand and will be included in the information you receive when you arrive at Confratute. Complete the product and submit it to the strand coordinator during Confratute to have your grade submitted to the Registrar. If you wish to have your coordinator return your project, enclose an envelope addressed to you with sufficient postage. The cover page of your project should be a copy of your approved Management Plan, which is included in your participant packet. If you need your grade submitted prior to October 1, 2016, please inform your strand coordinator and request that your grade be submitted early. Products or projects not completed by the end of Confratute must be completed and grades submitted by the instructor within one year of application. Transcripts can be requested through the Registrar’s website at registrar.uconn.edu/transcripts/. There is no fee for this transcript service.

INTERNATIONAL PARTICIPANTS

Confratute International participants may apply for credit as non-degree students by first completing the I-20 and Financial Declaration Forms 3 months before arriving to campus; however, Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) regulations may restrict or prohibit registration for credit by students who are not citizens of the United States of America. It is the student’s individual responsibility to comply with INS rules and regulations. When applying for a visa, please be sure to verify that your visa category will allow you to enroll for credits. Check the Office of Global Affairs website isss.uconn.edu/ for information, forms, and procedures.

Contact Hours

Attendees can earn a maximum of 34 contact hours of participation at Confratute by attending a full schedule of keynotes, strands, special topic sessions, and other activities. To receive contact hours, A Planning and Documentation Guide must be completed and returned to the Credit Desk at Command Central before you leave Confratute. You may NOT receive academic credit and contact hours for the same activity from UConn. The Contact Hours given by the State of Connecticut may or may not be honored by other state agencies. More details will be provided in the schedule of events you will receive upon arrival to Confratute.
TEXTBOOK ORDER FORM

TEXTBOOKS
Several strands recommend textbooks or manuals. These will be available for purchase at Confratute. For details see the Schedule of Events packet that is given to you upon registration at Confratute. Textbooks may be recommended for strands that participants take for credit.
