

Confratute 45 at the University of Connecticut

Enjoyment • Engagement • Enthusiasm for Learning

Dear friends and colleagues,

Yesterday you received a happy 'save the date' notice from us with the good news that we will be holding a live and virtual Confratute. For those of you who are interested in attending the live Confratute, please note that we will be hosting you in the middle of campus this year starting on Sunday evening (July 9th) and ending on Thursday (July 13th) after lunch. South Campus is closed for construction and so, our keynotes and classes will be located in the Student Union and two or three centralized classroom buildings. All participants who choose the residential option will be housed in Charter Oak Apartments, in single bedrooms with shared bathrooms. Charter Oak apartments are about a 15-minute walk from the center of campus and we will be providing shuttle buses. Please note that attendance at the live Confratute will be capped at 400, so if you want to join us in person, please register early. Registration will open at the end of March and we will notify you the day it opens.

For those of you interested in the virtual conference, we will have a separate program with some of the same strands offered live but also, new and exciting keynotes that are only offered virtually. So, stay tuned for our live and virtual schedule and speaker announcements, which will be released in the next couple of weeks and we hope to see you at Confratute in July!!
